Major Winter Weather Event

Paradise, CA, 1/25/2021 - Current forecasts are indicating a potential of varying severity for snow accumulations in Paradise. Due to the damage caused by the 2018 Camp Fire, the Town of Paradise has thousands of hazard trees which pose a threat to the public under normal conditions. A Level 1 Emergency Operations Center has been activated to prepare for a potential combined snow, wind and downed trees event. This event is expected to commence Sunday, January 24 with stronger impacts expected Tuesday, January 26.

Due to this forecast the Paradise Recreation and Park District Administrative Office will be closed beginning Tuesday, January 26, 2021. Depending upon the conditions of facilities and availability of staff, Paradise Recreation and Park District may temporarily close parks and restrooms as well. We will evaluate the conditions for safety and will reopen once it is deemed safe to do so.
